

Team Kortney members Cindy Preslar, New Mexico (l-r), Jennifer Phillips and Lawrence Eno, Northport, N.Y., pose at the 17th mile of the ING NYC Marathon on Nov. 6. The team of 20 runners representing The Kortney Rose Foundation (KRF) raised more than $50,000 through participating in the 42nd annual marathon. Eno, who is currently in treatment for a brain tumor, raised $4,000. KRF was founded by Kristen Gillette in memory of her daughter, Kortney Rose, who died as a result of a brain tumor. Fundraising efforts benefit pediatric brain tumor research at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Team Kortney was also represented by Grace Cashman, Little Silver, Maria Paul, Long Branch, Megan Porter and Anthony Pellegrino, both Shrewsbury, and Christopher Lombardi, of Lincroft.
